

Licensed Veterinary Technician (LVT) – Grow With a Team That Believes in You

$23–$30/hour | Full-Time | On-Site | Omaha, NE

At Ralston Vet, our Licensed Veterinary Technicians are more than support staff—they're vital partners in care. As a 100% employee-owned, AAHA-accredited veterinary clinic, we are deeply committed to practicing at the highest standards—for patients, for pet families, and for our team.

Whether you're newly licensed or a seasoned professional, you'll be surrounded by people who care deeply about the work we do and how we do it together. From client education and dental procedures to surgery assistance and anesthesia monitoring, our LVTs are trusted to work at the top of their license—and we're proud of that.

Why Join Our Team?

-  Mentorship from Experienced Leaders - Many of our managers and department leads started as LVTs themselves. You'll be supported by people who've walked the path you're on.
-  Professional Growth & CE Support - Access AAHA's entire CE library, participate in in-clinic CE events, and take advantage of our CE benefit to go beyond the basics. We aim to meet and exceed the AAHA CE standard for every position.
-  A Role That Grows With You - Our LVTs take on leadership, education, and collaboration roles across departments. We believe in career growth, not burnout.
-  A Clinic That Matches Your Standards - Our recently remodeled facility was designed with workflow, team care, and patient comfort in mind. We're proud to meet the gold standard.

 This is a full-time, on-site position at our Omaha, NE clinic.

 Applicants must be licensed in the state of Nebraska.

 Looking for LVT internship? Reach out directly to learn more.

Apply today and take the next step in a veterinary career where your knowledge and compassion are valued every day.

Contact: Crissy Nelson, LVT & Operations Director cnelsen@ralstonvet.com

2. Veterinarian or DVM

Associate Veterinarian – Build a Career with Purpose in a Clinic That Practices What It Preaches

Full-Time | On-Site | Omaha, NE

At Ralston Vet, we don't just treat pets—we partner with pet families for life. As an AAHA-accredited, employee-owned clinic, we're proud to uphold the highest standards of care for our patients, our clients, and our team.

We're looking for a compassionate, motivated Associate Veterinarian to join our collaborative team in a newly remodeled hospital designed for optimal patient flow and client comfort. You'll work alongside a group of tenured DVMs, LVTs, and support staff who share a commitment to excellence, growth, and mentorship.

Whether you're an experienced clinician or a recent graduate, you'll find space here to learn, lead, and thrive.

Why Ralston Vet?

- 🏢 AAHA-Accredited & Purpose-Built Facility – Designed for excellence in medicine, communication, and team wellbeing
- 💡 Medical Director Support & Mentorship – Backed by decades of experience in progressive small animal medicine
- 👥 Collaborative, Multi-DVM Team – A true partner environment where your voice is heard and your growth is supported
- 🐾 Employee-Owned Culture – Shared success, long-term relationships, and a genuine investment in one another
- 🧠 Professional Development – Access to AAHA's full CE library, regular in-clinic CE, and support for external learning

What You'll Do

- Deliver high-quality, evidence-based medicine with compassion
- Collaborate with clients and care teams to create meaningful treatment plans
- Contribute to a culture of mentorship, curiosity, and trust
- Live Ralston Vet's core values: Compassionate Respect, Expert Learning, Ownership, Willingness to Help, and Showing Up

📍 This is a full-time, on-site position located in Omaha, NE.

💬 To learn more or submit your resume, contact Crissy Nelsen, LVT, Operations Director at

cnelsen@ralstonvet.com

